

Information for the participants on personal data processing

Dear Sir/Madam,

Italgas S.p.A. and DEPA Infrastructure SA, as Joint Controllers (hereinafter, for the sake of brevity, the "Joint Data Controllers" or the "Companies"), wish to inform you, pursuant to art. 13 and 14 of the European Regulation 2016/679 on the protection of personal data ("Regulation") and national legislation, including the individual provisions of the Supervisory Authority, where applicable, that your personal data will be processed in compliance with the legislative and contractual provisions in force for the purposes and in the manner indicated below. Both Companies are committed to protecting your privacy and maintaining the security of your personal data. Your personal data is collected when you provide it directly, e.g. at the event or when you register via web, or when the personal data is transmitted to us by the participants.

1) Types of personal data, purpose of the processing and legal basis for the processing

A) Types of personal data

The Companies mainly process the following categories of personal data:

- identification and contact data (name, surname, e-mail address, telephone contacts);
- photographs and audio-video recordings, in particular with reference to any interventions carried out during the works.

B) Purpose of the processing and legal basis of the processing

The above personal data are collected and processed for the following purposes:

- a. for your adhesion/registration and participation in the event, in person or via web (hereinafter "Event"), as well as for the management and organization of the event itself by the Companies.
- b. the publication of photographic images, audios or videos relating to the event on intranet sites, corporate Internet sites (or sites linked to the Companies) or on companies' documentation, to pursue institutional, corporate and/or editorial purposes of the Companies, free of charge and without time limits, also in accordance with the legislation on the publication of images and on copyright.

For these purposes, the legal basis for the processing is the execution of the contract or pre-contractual measures adopted at your request (letter a), or consent (letter b). Please mind that not consenting will not lead to any negative consequences or impact your participation in other aspects of the event.

2) Methods of processing and nature of the provision

Personal data will be processed by the Companies' authorised persons and/or by Data Processors that the Joint Controllers may use to store, manage and transmit the data by means of paper, IT and telematic tools according to the principles of the law and protecting the privacy of the data subject and his/her rights through the implementation of appropriate technical and organisational measures to ensure a level of security appropriate to the risk.

In the context of this event and the processing of your personal data, there will be no use of automated decision-making processes, including profiling, as defined under art. 22 (1) and (4) of the Regulation. This means that the decisions based on the processing of your personal data for this event are made by human intervention, not by automated processes.

The provision of your personal data is mandatory for the purposes of membership/registration and participation in the event; any refusal to provide your personal data does not imply any prejudice, except for the impossibility of being able to register/participate in the Event organized by the Companies.

Last update of this information: January 2024. It may be necessary in the future to make changes or additions to the information, as a result of regulatory or business developments. The updated information is available at any time at the Company's offices.

3) Data retention

The retention period of the personal data depends on the purposes for which they are processed and therefore may vary. The criteria used to determine the applicable retention period are as follows: the retention of the personal data covered by this notice will take place for the time necessary (i) for the management of the Event, (ii) for the management of complaints or specific requests, (iii) to assert rights in court, as well as (iv) for the time provided for by applicable laws.

Your personal data will be kept for the entire duration of the Event and, at the end of it, for no more than 10 years and, only for cases subject to litigation, any additional time necessary for the exercise of rights.

4) Disclosure, dissemination and transfer of data

Your personal data may be communicated to companies of the Italgas Group and to operators in the sector who provide assistance and advice, including legal advice, in relation to the Event, as well as to public authorities authorised by law, in the event of audits, assessments and/or inspections. In addition, in certain cases, your personal data may also be communicated to suppliers, designated by the Companies as Data Processors, in accordance with art. 28 of the Regulation, in the context of activities related to the organization and management of the Event, such as those who deal with the technical management of networks and IT systems. The data provided will not be transferred to third parties and will not be disseminated, except for photographs and audio-video recordings, for which consent has been given. The personal data will be processed within the European Union and stored on servers located within the European Union.

5) Rights of the data subject

The data subject may, in relation to the data processing described herein, exercise the rights laid down in the Regulation (articles 15-21 and 77), including:

- to receive confirmation as to whether or not personal data concerning him/her are being processed, and, access to his/her personal data, as well as further information on the processing in progress on them (right to access);
- to rectify, modify and/or have incomplete personal data completed (right to rectification);
- to request the erasure or the restriction of processing of personal data processed in violation of the law, including those that are no longer necessary in relation to the purposes for which they were collected or otherwise processed (the right to be forgotten and right to restriction);
- to object to processing of personal data concerning him/her (right to object);
- to withdraw consent, where given, without prejudice to the lawfulness of the processing based on the consent given before the withdrawal;
- to lodge a complaint with the Supervisory Authority in the event of a breach of personal data protection regulations;
- to receive a copy of the personal data concerning them in a structured, commonly used and machine-readable format and to have such data transmitted directly from one controller to another, where technically feasible (right to data portability).
